

Cider Press Use Policy ver. 04052021

I _____ (full name) hereby acknowledge that I agree to the following policies regarding use of the ToolBox Project's cider press:

- * The cider press may only be checked out by current ToolBox Project members with membership applications on file.
- * The cider press is due back within the first hour of the shift when it is due. If I return the cider press late, I will be charged the daily rental fee plus one dollar, per day.
- * If I reserve the cider press and do not pick it up on the day I reserved it, I will be required to pay the full borrowing fee for the cider press.
- * The cider press is valued at over $1,000. If I return it with mechanical or physical damage of greater than $75 as assessed by a professional repair person, I agree to pay the full cost of repairs or, if deemed necessary by the ToolBox Project, the replacement value of $1,200 to the ToolBox Project within one month's notice of damage reported by the ToolBox Project.
- * The cider press must be returned clean without any food particles in the machinery and with all wood components wiped down with a wet cloth or paper towel.

This policy is a supplement to the ToolBox Project's Tool Use Policy and the borrower must abide by all of the Tool Use Policies in addition to those provided here.
